

Todd Minikus

ELECTED to 2009 Rolex FEI World Cup Finalists

Todd Minikus Takes $200,000 FTI Rider Challenge at Palm Beach

WELLINGTON, Fla., Mar. 21--Olympic double gold medalist McLain Ward and Sapphire won the biggest purse in his career Saturday night by capturing the $400,000 FTI Consulting Finale CSI 5* Grand Prix Saturday night at the Palm Beach International Equestrian Center.

Todd Minikus of Wellington won the $200,000 FTI Rider Challenge in a double header event that made the total purse the largest pay day in U.S. jumping history.

Todd Minikus Wins Again, with Presidente in WEF Challenge Cup VIII in Wellington

Wellington, FL., Feb. 26 --- Wellington's own Todd Minikus aboard Presidente captured another Grand Prix win Thursday in Round VIII of the $30,000 Braman Motorcars WEF Challenge Cup Series at the Palm Beach International Equestrian Center.

WELLINGTON, Fla., Feb. 21--Wellington's Todd Minikus on Alaska beat out Yann Candele of Canada on Pitareusa in a two-horse jump off in the $75,000 Equestrian Sport Productions' CSI 2* Grand Prix at the FTI Winter Equestrian Festival Saturday night.

WELLINGTON, Fla., Feb. 14--Todd Minikus added to his FTI Winter Equestrian Festival successes with a win aboard Alaska in the $25,000 Fidelity Investments 1.50-meter Classic Saturday.

Minikus and Presidente, owned by the Sleepy P Ranch LLC, was the fastest in a 19-horse jump off in the series that is part of the FTI Winter Equestrian Festival.